

Start of Ticket Sale for 2018 World Rowing Cup II

From 21 to 24 June 2018, the World Rowing Cup II takes place in Linz-Ottensheim. Four months prior to the region's seasonal highlight, ticket sales have now started. Weekend and VIP-Tickets can be purchased online. Moreover, registration for media accreditations is open.

One year in advance of the 2019 World Rowing Championships in Linz-Ottensheim, the high society of rowing already stops by for the 2018 World Rowing Cup II. This year, the Upper Austrian Rowing Federation is organiser of the second of three annual World Rowing Cups. 950 athletes of 50 different nations will take part from 21 to 24 June 2018. Spectators, who want to experience this seasonal sports highlight, can now secure their ticket for the World Championships-rehearsal.

Ticket Categories

Weekend tickets are valid on both final days and can be purchased for only € 10,-. Children until the age of 10 that are accompanied by adults enter for free. Entry to the heats and repechages on Thursday and Friday is free of charge. Parking tickets cost € 8,- per day.

There are two categories of VIP-Tickets. Silver tickets including access to the VIP-lounge, unlimited beverage consumption and a parking ticket cost € 100,- per piece. Gold tickets for € 180,- per piece additionally include an exclusive gastronomic service.

Regatta Course Linz-Ottensheim

The regatta course was built in 1972. In 1990, the Nations Cup was held there as first international regatta. In 1998, the Junior World Championships were hosted by the Upper Austrian Rowing Federation, followed by another Nations Cup in 2001. In 2006, the course was extended to 8 lanes and one year later the first World Cup took place. The last international regatta hosted were the Under 23 World Championships in 2013.

Media Accreditations

All media needs to seek accreditation through the World Rowing Federation (FISA). The FISA media center can be found here.
